

Union Home Minister and Minister of Cooperation, Shri Amit Shah says it is a matter of profound spiritual significance that for the first time since 1947, the Navratri pujas have been held in the historic Sharda Temple in Kashmir this year

Earlier in the year the Chaitra Navratri Puja was observed and now the mantras of the Shardiya Navratri puja resound in the shrine

Home Minister says that he was fortunate to reopen the temple on 23rd March 2023 after restoration

This not only signifies the return of peace in the valley but also marks the rekindling of our nation's spiritual and cultural flame under the leadership of Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi

प्रविष्टि तिथि: 16 OCT 2023 4:00PM by PIB Delhi

Union Home Minister and Minister of Cooperation, Shri Amit Shah has said that it is a matter of profound spiritual significance that for the first time since 1947, the Navratri pujas have been held in the historic Sharda Temple in Kashmir this year. In a post over X, he said that earlier in the year, the Chaitra Navratri Puja was observed and now the mantras of the Shardiya Navratri puja resound in the shrine. Shri Amit Shah said that he was fortunate to reopen the temple on 23rd March 2023 after restoration. This not only signifies the return of peace in the valley but also marks the rekindling of our nation's spiritual and cultural flame under the leadership of Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi.

Amit Shah

@AmitShah · Follow

It is a matter of profound spiritual significance that for the first time since 1947, the Navratri pujas have been held in the historic Sharda Temple in Kashmir this year. Earlier in the year the Chaitra Navratri Puja was observed and now the mantras of the Shardiya Navratri puja... Show more

2:42 PM · Oct 16, 2023

6.9K

Reply

Share

Read 176 replies

RK/AY/ASH/AKS

(रिलीज़ आईडी: 1968099) आगंतुक पटल : 852

इस विज्ञप्ति को इन भाषाओं में पढ़ें: Tamil , Kannada , Urdu , Hindi , Marathi , Assamese , Punjabi , Gujarati