

Ministry of Home Affairs

Union Home Minister and Minister of Cooperation Shri Amit Shah chairs a security review meeting in Raipur, Chhattisgarh

Double engine government under the leadership of Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi is leaving no stone unturned in completely eliminating Naxalism

Before 31 March, Naxalism will become history in the entire country including Chhattisgarh

Naxalism ruined many generations, now it should not take more time to eliminate this problem

Chhattisgarh government has made satisfactory progress on both development and security fronts

The ongoing fight against Naxalites must not scattered

Coverage area of the 'NiyadNellanar' scheme should be expanded from a 5-km to 10 km radius around security camps

It must be ensured that people in Naxal-affected areas receive equal opportunities for development

Coordination among states police and central agencies should improve to nab those Naxals fleeing from one state to another

Posted On: 05 APR 2025 11:25PM by PIB Delhi

Union Home Minister and Minister of Cooperation Shri Amit Shah chaired a security review meeting in Raipur, Chhattisgarh. The meeting was attended by Chhattisgarh Chief Minister Shri Vishnu Deo Sai, Deputy Chief Minister Shri Vijay Sharma, the Director of the Intelligence Bureau (IB), Special Secretary (Internal Security) in the Ministry of Home Affairs, Directors General of the Central Reserve Police Force (CRPF), National Investigation Agency (NIA), Border Security Force (BSF), and Indo-Tibetan Border Police (ITBP) as well as the Chief Secretary and Director General of Police of Chhattisgarh.

Addressing the meeting, the Union Home Minister said that the double engine government under the leadership of Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi is leaving no stone unturned in completely eliminating Naxalism. He said that before 31 March, Naxalism will become history in the entire country including Chhattisgarh.

Union Home Minister Shri Amit Shah said Naxalism ruined many generations, now it should not take more time to eliminate this problem. He said, the ongoing fight against Naxalites must not scattered.

Shri Amit Shah said, Coordination among states police and central agencies should improve to nab those Naxals fleeing from one state to another.

Shri Amit Shah said, Chhattisgarh government has made satisfactory progress on both development and security fronts. He said, coverage area of the 'NiyadNellanar' scheme should be expanded from a 5-km to 10 km radius around security camps. Shri Shah said, it must be ensured that people in Naxal-affected areas receive equal opportunities for development. The Union Home Minister said that the momentum of the anti-Naxal operation should not diminish under any circumstances.

RK/VV/PR/PS

(Release ID: 2119424) Visitor Counter : 539

Read this release in: Urdu , Hindi